Italians May Abandon Piave Line

HUNS ARE FORCING RETIREMENT TO THE ADIGE RIVER

Rome Military Critics Hint at Further Withdrawal of Diaz Forces

GERMANS AGREE TO SPARE ART TREASURES

Gen. Kaledine Looms Up as New "Man of the Hour" in Russia. Holds Coal Fields

(International News Service.)

Rome, Nov. 20.—All of Italy today awaits the quickly approaching final phase of the battle of the Piave. Military experts sound a note of caution, saying that the Germans and Austrians have massed mighty armies in the north and that their artillery supplies are tremendous. If the high command decides upon a retirement to the Adige and the giving up of Venice, the public will recognize it as a necessary step preliminary to a counter drive against the invaders.

The central powers are reported to have promised the Pope not to damage Venice or to desecrate the priceless art possessions in the city.

(International News Service.)

London, Nov. 20.—Only raiding activities were reported on the British front today. British troops raided German trenches east of Fambeux, and a German attack near Wyschaete was repulsed.

(International News Service.)

Paris, Nov. 20.—A movement to restore the monarchy in Russia has been launched, according to a sensational telegram published in L'Information today. The dispatch, which is without confirmation, is said to have originated in Vienna. Cossacks led by Grand Duke Nicholas are reported to be leading the movement. The Grand Duke is said to be backed by Gen. Kaledine.

(International News Service.)

Berlin, Nov. 20.—Terrific fighting is taking place in northern Italy, the war office reported today. Italian counter attacks have all been repulsed. Along the lower Piave there have been no new developments.

(International News Service.)

Stockholm, Nov. 20.—Bloody fighting is raging in Moscow, ancient capital of Russia, it was reported from Haparanda today. The famous old national theatre and many other historic buildings in Moscow have been demolished.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Nov. 20.—Russia has found a new "man of the hour." He is Gen. Kalendine, Cossack commander. Dispatches reaching here today from Petrograd say Kalendine controls the entire Don Cossack region and is holding the entire Russian coal and bread supply. Petrograd is at his mercy, according to the dispatches, and it is not thought the city can hold out against him more than a few hours.

Meanwhile, Kerensky was reported forming new armies with which to again attempt to wrest control of the government fom the Bolsheviki.

In Petrograd there is increasing dissatisfaction with the government of the Bolsheviki, according to travelers arriving in Torne from the capital.

(International News Service.)

London, Nov. 20.—With Baron Reading, lord chief justice of England, presiding the first meeting of American and British delegates to the inter-allied war council was held at the prime minister's residence today. The object was to enable the British and American delegates to reach an agreement before the conference opens in Paris.

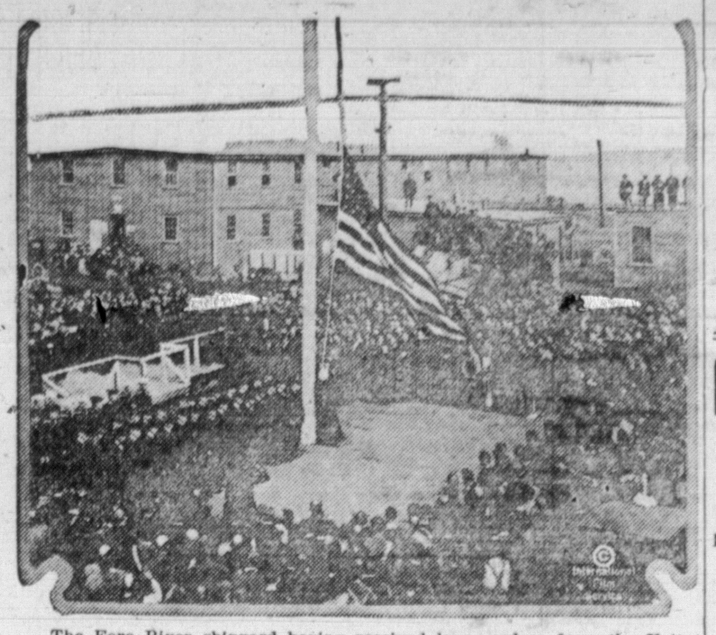

(International News Service.)

London, Nov. 20.—A tremendous effort is being made by the Austro-German armies to end the battle of the Piave in their favor by overrunning the Asiago plateau, sweeping southward and thus get in the rear of the Italian lines between Dassanoa and Feltre.

There has been new concentrations of Teutonic troops in that district and fighting there is said to be the most savage on the whole Italian battle front.

Despite the terrific losses inflicted upon the Teuton armies in the mountain fighting, the soldiers are being flung against the fortified Alpine summit. Heavy artillery duelling continues along the lower Piave river. Under the protection of the guns from the Italian warships, immense supplies of war materials have been moved rearward by the Italians from their bases at the mouth of the Piave.

NEW DESTROYER PLANT IS OPENED

The Fore River shipyard having received large orders from the United States government for the construction of warships, merchant ships, and scores of torpedo boat destroyers, it has been found necessary to enlarge the plant and they have therefore taken the old government aviation field at Squantum and are turning it into a huge shipbuilding yard at the cost of $28,000,000. Photograph shows the Stars and Stripes being raised at the new yard. Naval men and thousands of employees took part in the ceremonies

LLOYD GEORGE IS VICTOR IN FIGHT FOR CONCERT OF ACTION BY ALLIES

PREMIER SCORES BEFORE PARLIAMENT AFTER DELIVERING THE GREATEST SPEECH OF HIS OFFICIAL CAREER.

SUB MENACE IS OVERCOME

WIDESPREAD ATTENTION GIVEN THIS STATEMENT BY ENGLISH STATESMEN. AMERICA AND FRANCE FAVOR WAR COUNCIL.

(International News Service.)

London, Nov. 20.—Official announcement was made in the House of Commons this afternoon that Col. E. M. House and Gen. Trasker H. Bliss, at the direction of President Wilson, will participate in the forthcoming supreme inter-allied war council at Paris. The announcement was made by Chancellor A. Bonar Law.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Nov. 20.—Administration officials today accepted as a certainty the creation of a supreme allied war council to settle the complex war problems for all of Germany's enemies. It was agreed that the explanation of Premier Lloyd George of the plan met the views of the United States.

(International News Service.)

London, Nov. 20.—Premier Lloyd George today stood forth as the victor in the great parliamentary battle over the proposed supreme inter-allied war council. If, as now seems apparent, the premier's war policies are to be put into effect forthwith, it will mean such unity and centralization of power in directing the war as the allies have not known since the mighty conflict opened over three years ago.

The premier's speech is declared to be the greatest oratorical effort of his life. Widespread attention was given his statement that Germany's submarine menace has been overcome,

OFFICERS SEIZE TRUNK OF LIQUOR

EIGHTY HALF-PINTS AND SIX QUARTS CONFISCATED BY ALBANY POLICE.

Six gallons and a half of perfectly good and aromatic wet goods, consigned to Miss Ima Ford at West Point, Ga., was licked up by the thirsty streets of Albany early this morning. The beverage was removed from L. & N. train No. 7, southbound, by the Albany police, acting on the tip of federal authorities, and conveyed to Moulton street, where the imprisoned spirits were freed by smashing the bottles.

Itemized, the shipment consisted of 80 half-pints and six full quarts. The fire water had been packed in a trunk, which was checked through to Miss Ford. In transit four half pints and one quart bottle were broken before the officers got into the game. The half pints were labeled "Stone Island," and the quarts "Old Barber."

The liquor was shipped from Hopkinsville, Ky.

GROUND BROKEN FOR NEW SEWER

WILL DRAIN THE BUSINESS SECTION OF ALBANY. CREDIT TO PAYNE ADMINISTRATION.

Ground has been broken for the new sewer that will complete the draining of the business district of Albany. A large force of men is now employed, the contract having been let to a Birmingham concern.

The sewer, beginning at Holly street near Sixth avenue, will extend through Holly to Second avenue, crossing near the switch track, and then running to Patterson street and Fourth avenue, west, where it will connect with the main sewer. Laterals will extend to Moulton street in one direction and to Lee street in another. Many business houses will be afforded sewerage connections, including a number of the manufacturing plants and wholesale establishments.

The building of the sewer is the crowning achievement of the Payne administration, so far, and the executive and the aldermen are being congratulated on their enterprise.

LOWRY PRESIDES AT RED CROSS MEETING

(International News Service.)

Birmingham, Nov. 20.—"We have neglected the little things while waiting for the big things, and when the big things came we were not ready," said Dr. G. B. Lowry, of Troy, Ala., who presided over the Red Cross conference Tuesday at the Tutwiler. Dr. Lowry took the place of Dr. T. H. Fraser, chairman of the Mobile chapter, who was unavoidably detained.

The Monday afternoon session of the conference was featured by one of the most eloquent and picturesque descriptions of the work of the American Red Cross in the war zone ever heard in Birmingham.

Old Building is Being Torn Down

The old building at the corner of Vine and Bank streets, Decatur, one of the city's landmarks, is being torn down. The venerable structure has been condemned, and this is said to be the reason that it is being razed. For the present the valuable lot will remain unimproved, it is understood.

Wheeler's Daughters Honored by Soldiers

(International News Service.)

Camp Wheeler, Macon, Ga., Nov. 20.—The memory of Gen. Joseph Wheeler, famous Confederate and Spanish-American war soldier, was honored here when the Dixie division staged a review for the four daughters of the famous cavalry leader. They were the Misses Lucy and Annie Wheeler, of Wheeler, Ala.; Mrs. William J. Harris, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Gordon Buck, of New York.

"Y" War Fund is Strongly Endorsed By Robert Jervis

Soldier Boy, Writing From Camp Wheeler, Praises the Work Done by Association.

An unusually strong endorsement of the Y. M. C. A. war work fund comes from Robt. Jervis, one of the most popular boys who went from Albany to Camp Pike to enter military training, being later transferred to Camp Wheeler, Macon, Ga. Because of his prominence here and his exceptionally high character, the endorsement of Mr. Jervis will carry weight and should stimulate subscriptions.

In a letter to the Daily Mr. Jervis says:

"I am indeed gratified to note the interest shown in Morgan county over the Y. M. C. A. war fund. I can assure you that money cannot be spent for a better purpose. It gets awfully lonesome in the tents at night, and there is absolutely no place to go besides the Y. M. C. A. There is a comfortably heated building, free stationery and a place to write, a piano and a victrola, and above all a spiritual influence, which is the greatest help in the world to the soldiers. This building and all others are too small to accommodate the men who come here, and they are raising this $35,000,000 to make the buildings large enough and to have better equipment. So, for our sake, do your best to make the people of Morgan county do their part.

PLAY UP, PLAY UP, AND PLAY THE GAME!

In the first days of the Red Triangle campaign in the Birmingham district but two organizations appeared to be active—the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. As the campaign proceeded numerous other clubs joined in the fray to help make up the $75,000 allotment for Birmingham. At the last, in the mad rush, $90,000 became the total, and neither the Y. M. C. A. nor the Y. W. C. A. figured so prominently, but the head-line places were taken by the Kiwanis and Rotary clubs. In a word, Field Marshal Rushton was able to marshal, not only his original armies in the field, but before the battle was won had gained other large armies, which, in the end, did as hard work and attained as high results as did the original armies. Birmingham took seriously her $75,000 budget, the one that the international committee of the Y. M. C. A. gave them to raise. The figures were considered fair, though high. There is no reason to think but that the same care was exercised in making the Morgan county budget as the one for Jefferson county. Let us all accept our budget of $7,000 seriously. Let us all play the game hard until the goal is reached, and then some.

Attention has been called to what might be gained by enlisting the Business Woman's Christian Association in the Red Triangle work. We do not know what plans the central committee has in mind, but would suggest that every available club and organization in the county that will consent to do so, be put to work at once to make assurance doubly sure that our quota will be raised. Limestone county took her budget seriously and over-subscribed it. So have the other counties. Pell City, called a city by courtesy, as it is only a good-sized town, was given a budget of $600, but promptly raised $2,000.

It is a fact that Morgan county raised nothing of the first Y. M. C. A. fund, and in no instance yet has she given her apportionment in any of the other war enterprises.

Now is the time for us to wipe out old scores and get a grand revenge on our former selves by over-subscribing the Red Triangle fund.

It would be a graceful and appreciated act if the Home Guards should see to it that their fellow soldiers in the home cantonments and in far away France are dealt with generously at this time. The Albany Board of Commerce might enter the race for funds. The Boosters could make a whirlwind campaign throughout the entire county to make sure none are without the giving spirit, or withhold the generous hand at this time. There is nothing to hinder every secret order in the county making an official and special donation this week to the Red Triangle work. Those who are working in these worthy organizations may be feeling that they are doing their bit by keeping their own work going, and have a tendency to leave this religious effort up to the Y. M. C. A. and the churches to do.

Such an attitude is not a good one at any time, especially now, when we are plunged into the bloodiest and most destructive conflict that has ever arisen. Be you ever so good a member and worker in whatever you may belong to, you are not a good American at this time if you are not anxious to co-operate in every effort for the benefit of the soldiers. Play up, play up, and play the game!

Seven thousand or beyond it or bust!

A TIGHTER REIN DRAWN ON THE ENEMY ALIEN.

From this time on the enemy aliens, meaning the subjects of countries now at war with the United States who reside in this republic, are under suspicion. Whether good aliens or bad aliens, they have been bundled into a general category of those who are to be watched. There is no time to separate the sheep from the goats. All are to be treated alike. Those who are peacefully inclined, who are content to enjoy the benefits that America so generously grants to the subjects of every nation, are to receive the full protection of the law. Those otherwise inclined are to be treated as drastically as spies and incendiaries are treated in the empire that fosters "kultur" and boasts of butchery.

Under the restrictions announced by President Wilson, all enemy aliens are to be required to register. Furthermore, they are to be barred from the water front where great piers hold the precious foodstuffs that are to be sent abroad for the use of our own troops and those of our allies. Their presence in the vicinity of grain elevators and warehouses is to be taken as prima facie evidence of their unneutral intentions. The District of Columbia, where the men who guide the destinies of the nation dwell, is a barred zone. This they cannot enter, except under penalty of arrest and imprisonment.

It was high time that a tighter rein was drawn upon the skulking assassins, the destructive firebugs and the subtle propagandists. The national life is at stake and nothing that will give comfort to the monster of Berlin should or will be tolerated. The torch has already been applied to piers, warehouses and stock yards. Munition plans have been destroyed. There was evidence of a nation-wide plot to paralyze the American armies by destroying American supplies.

Internment for every man who pays allegiance to Berlin or Vienna would but have been a mild precaution. If restrictions do not prove effective, this will be the next step. The United States is learning from Germany that war is a stern business.

THE DAILY FORCE LOSES A VALUABLE MAN.

Among the selectmen who are today en route to Camp Pike is Frank L. Inman, for the past five years an employe of the Albany-Decatur Daily. During that period he has progressed from a novice into a capable compositor and pressman. The big Duplex printing press down in the basement has responded to his coaxings as the giant mogul does to the promptings of its master—the engineer. And if for the next few days the Daily should be late at press, just write it down that the Duplex is rebellious at being placed in strange and less skilled hands. For machines, like folks, have their favorites and recognize the law of associates.

Patriotic to the extreme, Frank many months ago volunteered his services to his country. For physical reasons he was rejected. The selective draft, however, was less rigid in its requirements, and he was among those called to go to the front and battle for the safety of the world. He went willingly, as he did everything else, for he was no "slacker" in fact or in thought. After the war is over and the flag of freedom again floats over the war-torn world, he will be welcomed back to the Daily office by the entire clan, for his gentlemanly bearing and conscientious discharge of duty won him the friendship and confidence of every man, upstairs and down.

Lloyd George is Victor in Fight and the much heralded underwater warfare has lost its effectiveness.

At the same time the premier indicated that plans may soon be announced for an inter-allied naval council of war, similar in its activities as that planned for the army. He made it plain that he has the backing of the United States and France in his undertaking to unify the conduct of the war. Mr. Lloyd George wants the solidification of a friendly comradeship between the peoples of the nations ranged against the German alliance.

Watch How the Income Tax Affects YOU

(Written for the International News Service.)

$40-A-WEEK MAN.

The $40-a-week man or woman, married or single, must file a return under the war revenue bill and pay the government a tax unless sufficient exemptions are scheduled and proved to offset the amount demanded. When the married man makes $40 he has broken into the bloated bondholder class.

Forty dollars a week is $2,080 a year, and the bachelor or maid whose net income totals this amount must hand Uncle Sam 2 per cent of $1,080, or $21.60. The married man is exempt from taxation on his $2,000, but must pay 2 per cent on the extra $80, which is $1.60.

In the foregoing calculations it is assumed that the bachelor owns no property and has no personal debts and that the married man is also propertyless; debt-free and has no children.

If the married man has even one child he escapes taxation, for the government allows $200 exemption for each child, which brings his income below the tax limit. If the bachelor owns property on which he pays more than $1,080 in mortgage, interest, taxes, water rents, etc., he will be tax free, as would be the married man whose similar debts exceeded $80 a year.

Suppose a man makes $30 a week and his wife $10. In this case the family income is figured as a basis, and, if childless and without property or debts, the $1.60 will be demanded.

Repairs, if you own rented property, and any gift to charity up to 15 per cent of your income may also be scheduled in your claim for exemption, but in any case, if your gross income is $40, you must make a return to the collector of internal revenue for this district.

$45-A-WEEK MAN.

If your salary from all sources totals $45 a week you will be required to pay a war revenue tax, whether married or single.

Forty-five dollars a week is $2,340 a year, and on this amount a married man is charged 2 per cent on $340, or $6.80. He is exempt up to $2,000. The single man must give up more than half a week's salary. Having but $1,000 exemption, he will be charged 2 per cent of $1,340, or $26.80.

There are numerous additional exemptions, however. You may deduct interest paid on personal debt, city, state or county taxes, water rents, repairs on rented property, and the married man has $200 exemption for each child. There is also an exemption of money given to certain charities up to 15 per cent of your income.

Suppose, for instance, you own a "three-decker," that your mortgage interest, taxes, water rent and repairs exceed $1,340. In this case, whether married or single, you will not be required to pay a federal income tax. It is your "net" income only that Uncle Sam considers.

However, you must make a return to the collector of internal revenue and cite your various claims for exemption. This must be done before March 1, 1918.

In case a man makes $30 a week and his wife $15, the joint family income will be figured upon. Husband and wife will be allowed $1,000 exemption each and the tax will be levied upon the $340.

WILL YOUR PLACE BE VACANT THERE?

On some bright and cloudless morning,
When the Savior's face I see,
I will leave this world of sadness
For a home from sin made free,
For the Savior dear has promised
Room for all He will prepare.
When I reach that blessed mansion
Will your place be vacant there?

CHORUS.

Will your place be vacant there?
In that home so bright and fair;
Friends and dear ones re-united.
Oh, the joy beyond compare,
When our loved ones all shall gather
Round the shining throne so fair,
Where will you be then, my brother?
Will your place be vacant there?

Oh, how sweet will be the meeting
When the saved are ushered in;
Oh, the joy of loved ones greeting,
Knowing we are free from sin.
There we'll shout and sing hosannas,
There is pleasure rich and rare.
Where will you be then, my brother?
Will your place be vacant there?

Now the day is almost dawning
When the saved shall fly above,
Where we'll live in endless glory,
Resting in the Savior's love;
There is peace and love and gladness,
There is joy beyond compare,
When your loved ones enter Heaven.
Will your place be vacant there?

DANCE AT ELKS.

The Huntsville boys gave the crowd from Albany who came to attend the football game a lovely dance at the Elks' studio on Friday night from 9 to 2 o'clock. The music was furnished by Mrs. Hall and the dance was enjoyed by all.

Those from Albany were Misses Almon, Graves, Parsons, Johnson, Todd, Adams, Singleton and Curry, and the members of the football team.—Huntsville Mercury.

Mrs. Billy McKnight was hostess at a miscellaneous shower Monday afternoon, complimenting Miss Lola McKnight, who is to be a bride of the week. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns, palms and cut flowers. In a flower contest Miss McKnight won the prize, a box of crepe de chine handkerchiefs. Dressed in a dainty frock of white lace, little Miss Elizabeth Berry drew in a beautifully decorated basket, which held the many beautiful gifts. Dainty refreshments were served to Miss Corinne Long, Miss Louise Kelley, Mrs. O. C. Hollingsworth, Miss Bessie Brown, Mrs. C. E. Abel, Mrs. Ernest Branum, Mrs. J. M. Brown, Mrs. O. L. Mahoney, Mrs. Ed D. Berry, Miss Jewell Speer, Mrs. A. C. McKnight, Miss Louise Ellner, Mrs. Fritzelle Barnes, Mrs. Jno. Berry.

Allison gave a paper on Latin-America. After this most instructive afternoon, tea and cake were served by the hostess.

Mesdames Carl Patterson and Elbert Weaver were joint hostesses on yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Patterson, to the Missionary Society of the Central Methodist church. The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Central Baptist church had one of the most delightful meetings of the year yesterday at the home of Mrs. W. T. Lowe.

At 10:30 o'clock the ladies were on their way with boxes and baskets of lunch and bags filled with sewing for the soldier boys. Knitting needles flew fast, and those who were not up on the art of knitting were taught to "put on" and to "purl."

At 1 o'clock lunch was spread on a table made beautiful by a jar of prize chrpsanthemums. At 2:30 o'clock the regular program of the mid-month meeting was had, and a collection taken for state missions among the soldiers after which the meeting closed.

The miscellaneous shower given last evening at the home of Miss Martha Weaver by the Philathea class of the Central Baptist church for Miss Lillian Kirkland was one of the pretty events of the season.

The bride-to-be was seated in a bower of ferns and flowers under a fluffy white parasol. COLORED SOLDIER PRAISES "Y" WORK AT CAMP DODGE

Ernest (Brownie) Matthews, of Decatur, one of the negro selectmen now at Camp Dodge, Iowa, writes the Daily as follows:

We are having real weather. There hasn't been any snow since we have been here. The boys are all jolly and anxious to "get over," so they can take a hand in the "big show." We are working hard trying to get in shape before the weather gets too bad. We drill eight hours a day and attend school two hours at night. We will be about —— months here and —— months in France, and then we will be ready for "Fritz," and I hope our orders will read, "Take no prisoners."

The camp is a big, nice, clean city and I like the place, especially the "Y." It certainly is doing a great work. They have the friendliest people up here that I have ever seen.

We are the only soldiers here from Alabama. We are known as the 326th U. S. Infantry.

If for any reason the Albany-Decatur Daily reaches you irregularly, please telephone Albany 46 or write this office and the matter will be adjusted at once. The Daily is anxious to give you the best of service.

SWIFT PLANT AT DENVER FIRED

BLAZE EXTINGUISHED, HOWEVER, BEFORE MUCH DAMAGE WAS DONE.

(International News Service.)

Denver, Nov. 20.—Fire was discovered today at the plant of Swift & Co. at the Denver Union Stockyards. The fire broke out near the spot where two weeks ago police discovered 12 bombs.

LABOR BOSS SOON TO BE SELECTED

(International News Service.)

Washington, Nov. 20.—Appointment of an administrator of industries for the duration of the war is not far distant. Reports of an investigation of labor and industrial conditions throughout the country made to the council of national defense show that there is a decided lack of unity in the industrial mobilization of the United States. An administrator of industries would have control of labor, supplies, priority of labor, curtailment of non-essential industries and standardization of labor conditions.

Lecture Well Attended and Highly Entertaining

William J. Burns delivered a business talk to business men and clerks at the Colonial club last night, during which the fundamentals of successful business were put before his hearers in a clear, concise way, that made a deep impression. For two hours he held the close attention of a representative audience and it is a sure thing that he put those present to thinking along the lines of systematizing business and organization in a way to obtain the best results.

Mr. Burns represents the National Cash Register Company, and no mistake has been made in selecting a man who fully understands and with assistance of stereoptican views and moving pictures, presents most vital subjects of business in ways that sink in.

The speaker was introduced by Maj B. L. Malone and proceeded with his subject at once, delivering a masterly address. Any business organization that will secure Mr. Burns will find it will profit greatly.

U. S. Transport Damaged By Fire

(International News Service.)

An Atlantic Port, Nov. 20.—Federal officers today are investigating the fire which was discovered shortly after midnight on a U. S. transport docked here and which did considerable damage before it was extinguished. The vessel had already made three trips across the Atlantic with troops and had been sealed for fumigation.

The foregoing are the leaders of the "Y" war forces who will canvass Albany in the interest of the war work fund. The generals and colonels, under command of Field Marshal Payne, will mobilize tonight at the association building, where over a steaming oyster stew they will complete their plans of battle. The redoubtable warriors, under their brilliant leaders, will contend for victory tomorrow when they "go over the top" in the interest of a cause that is especially dear to the hearts of the boys in the trenches and in the camps, and that will appeal to their relatives and friends left behind, who believe that nothing is too good for the men who have gone out to give the supreme sacrifice of their lives if need be in the defense of their country.

The campaign will be sharp, decisive. It is expected that Albany will more than do its "bit" toward securing its share of Morgan county's quota of $7,000.

Hotel Man will Go to Chattanooga

Louis F. Gelbke has resigned his position as steward at Hotel Hilda to accept one at Chattanooga, for which city he expects to leave shortly. Since coming here Mr. Gelbke has demonstrated his unusual fitness for the hotel business and has many friends here who regret he has determined to go to another field.

ALBANY MAN CAME HOME TO DIE

"Three years ago I came home thinking two or three weeks would be my limit to live. I had suffered for 15 years from colic attacks and severe liver and stomach trouble. I happened to see an advertisement of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and purchased a bottle at the drug store, and after taking the first dose I felt better than I had for 15 years. I am now in the best of health—thanks to Mayr's Wonderful Remedy." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucous from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. S. M. Thompson, Albany; Owl Drug Co., Decatur. (Adv)

AMUSEMENTS

INGRAM SHOW PLEASES.

The Ingram show at the Masonic gave entire satisfaction. The play was new, well written and carefully produced. The company is well balanced. Special mention might be made of the little leading lady, Decima Ingram; the comedian, Walter J. Stewart, and Francis Ingram with his splendid bass voice.

The play tonight is "A Little Child Shall Lead Them." This is a society play, with plenty of comedy. A play that all married men and women and all young people contemplating marriage should see.

The vaudeville is changed every night, and songs are not repeated. The Ingram company is a show of real merit and should appeal to those who appreciate clean, classy, clever plays.

DELITE AND STAR WEDNESDAY.

Theda Bara is the star of the new William Fox photoplay, "The Vixen," which will be shown at the Delite and Star theatres Wednesday. In this picture, the emine[illegible]ess has returned to the type of role which gained her her first fame.

Miss Bara plays the part of Elsie Drummond, who lures a lover away from her sister, Helen, and then throws him aside, when he loses his money. Her next move is to take another of her sister's lovers; this time the man keeps his money, so Elsie keeps the man.

The denouement comes some years later, when the deceit which Elsie had practised toward her sister is proven. It is then that Helen's forbearance saves her from an unhappy home life.
